Kyuzou beat me to the punch. :p

We have designated an area on the lobby floor (outside the main events room near the base of Reunion Tower) to be a "Meet-up" area. This will be a fan scheduled event. Simply post a 1 hour time slot that is not already taken and a topic (e.g. "Final Fantasy Cosplayers") and I will put it on the schedule. I will occasionally post a consolidated schedule based on the requests. The final schedule will be printed in the pocket program and at the meet-up spot. Keep the description short as there is very little space in the pocket program.

One warning, this spot is somewhat close to registration. It is possible that the registration line may encroach on this space on Saturday morning, so you may want to avoid this time. Our goal is to avoid any line forming by efficient registration, but things happen.

Awesome! Great thinking ahead of time!

I believe that the best would be the 2:00 p.m. spot on Saturday for Final Fantasy Cosplayers if that's possible.

Question:

If we try to have a smallish meetup elsewhere (under 20 people in the lobby, lounge across from the bar, etc.), will we be asked to disband or come to this meetup area instead?

I think it depends on what you are doing. 10-15 people standing around talking is not unusual for the convention and shouldn't cause any sort of problem unless you are in a traffic lane. OTOH, if you're causing a disturbance or traffic problems then you'll probably be asked to move or disband.

I expect the noted area is a place where you KNOW that a large group of people can meet at a reserved time without issue. Other places will probably be under a system of "you stay out of my way, I'll stay out of yours".

Understood, and thank you. I'm familiar with the hotel's layout and am stupidly sensitive to walkway-blockage, so I'll make sure to keep everyone out of the way.

Actually, Friday is not the big line day at AnimeFest. Usually it's Saturday morning, since schools have started back before Labor Day.

Hey, we are getting together the Original Cosplay Contest and I'd like if we could have 7 p.m. on Saturday for an "Original Cosplay" photoshoot. It would give people who spent the time and effort to make their own original cosplay a chance to be in the spotlight!

Thanks,

Kyuzou

That's good to know. I was not aware of that factor, so it might be best not to have that particular period. Let me consult a few people for their opinion and get back to you. Thanks for that little important detail to avoid a possible conflict. I appreciate it. ^_^

On second thought, I have discussed the possible conflict with people, and we have decided just to take pictures right after the contest, out in front of the fountain for a bit. That would be better for everyone considering that the point was brought up that those participating in the Original Cosplay might also be in the Masquerade. This way we can avoid any possible schedule conflicts hopefully.

Because someone has to plan one, find out if other Silent Hill cosplayers would be willing/able to go, what time might work for the most people, etc etc. Since nobody has done that (or at least, not done it and posted it in this thread), there is no SH meet listed ;P
