if any girl is dressing up as Felicia from darkstalkers, i would like to shake your hand and introduce myself face to face. i would so like to buy lunch and go around to raves or just talk, or attend the anime fest. also if your dressing up as her, i dont want to see any fake skin like wearing a shirt or something... it better be the real deal.

i just like epic old anime characters. it just brings out the joy from the past. ooohhh great memories
